

A talk in aid of the RNLI at Wellow Village Hall, BA2 8QQ

Thursday 9 November 2023

6pm for 6:45pm

The Falklands War: Memoir of Captain Nick Tobin whose ship
HMS ANTELOPE, was tragically sunk, but his other battle had only just started

Nick will recount the ups and downs of his ship's unique involvement in the campaign to recover the Falkland Islands in 1982 and what happened to him and his ship's company after their return to England when an inquiry was set up to investigate the loss of his ship in action

Tickets £20 pp

To include light refreshments

Please download and complete the booking form attached and return to:

juliawyld@gmail.com

Supper available afterwards by individual arrangement at the Fox and Badger, Wellow (thefoxandbadger.com) are kindly donating a percentage of their takings on the night to the RNLI.

Supper bookings to be made directly to info@thefoxandbadger.com quoting the RNLI talk at the village hall or by phoning 01225 832293.